A WOMAN'S POLITICS

Why Mrs. Hendricks Likes Governor Hill

AND DISPARAGES MR. CLEVELAND.

The Widow of the Late Vice President Says That Hill Is a "Democrat of Democrats" and Reiterates the Wish That He May Be Nominated for President.

Indianapolis, July 8 .- "Mrs. Hendricks, The New York World understands that you have nominated Governor Hill, of that state, for the next president," was the remark addressed to the lady named in the foregoing by a the lady named in the foregoing by a representative of The World. She smilingly replied:

"Well, I do not know to what you refer. I suppose it has something to do with the brief visit that the governor paid me on the day that my husband's monument was unveiled."
"Yes, madam. Several reports of that conversation are circulating. One is that you told the governor that you hoped he would either 'got there' or 'get it,' referring to the next presidency."

Encouraging the Governor.

Encouraging the Governor.

"No, I did not say that. Of course the conversation was one of those light and running affairs that we all indulge in at times without measuring our words or thinking very much of just what we are saying. There were several others in my parlor besides Governor Hill, and in the conversation that sprung up many prominent men and public measures were discussed. Mr. Cleveland was referred to, and one of the gentlemen remarked that he did not seem to be an out and out Democrat; that he catered too much to the Mugwump element. While Gov. Hill did not seem to altogether indorse this view of Mr. Cleveland's character by anything he said. I inferred rather from his general demeanor and an occasional word that he held this same view. There was a brief pause in the conversation at this stage, and I said in a laughing way. "Well, governor, unless you can beat him for the nomination you will suffer in my good opinion."

Discussing Mr. Cleveland.
Continuing, Mrs. Hendricks said: "I did not mention Mr. Cleveland's name, but, of course, I meant him. The entire party doubtless held this view of Mr. Cleveland's democracy, although Gen. Sickles spoke of him several times in the very kindest manner, and so did Governor Hill. There was nothing said by any one that might not have been said to Mr. Cleveland's face."

"Mrs. Hendricks, you will stand by what you said then?"

"Oh, yes: why shouldn't I?"

"Why do you wish that Governor Hill should be the next nominee of the Democratic party?"

Why She Likes Hill. Discussing Mr. Cleveland.

Why She Likes Hill.

Why She Likes Hill.

"Well, I will tell you. Of course I do not know much about him, having met him so seldom, but Mr. Hendricks always admired him and his sturdy, whole souled Democracy. You see my husband was Democrat from principle, from honest motives and convictions. Times there were when his private interests would have been better subserved had he deserted the Democracy and gone over to the enemy, but he always stood firm; never for a moment did he quail. He was a Democrat of Democrats. He recognized that sort of an element in Governor Hill, He liked and admired him, and so did I."

The conversation then drifted into the undefined and desultory, and the correspondent, while not quoting Mrs. Hendricks closely, gathered the following points:

A Most Remarkable Hen.
Sándisces, Va., July 9.—Col. Thomas
D. Woods, who lives in Amherst county, Virginia, has in his poultry yard a hen that is truly a freak of nature. The hen is now about 5 years old. She grew up to be perfectly black. When 2 years old, however, white feathers began to make their appearance. They continued to increase until she became perfectly white. She remained white nearly two years when black feathers again began so appear. They have increased in number, and there is now no doubt that she will again be perfectly black. This seems to be a remarkable case, and is, perhaps, without a precedent. A Most Remarkable Hen.

How He Raised Money. PARKERSURG, W. Va., July r.—A notorious counterfeiter known as William Seibert, who has circulated more raised $\foatsi\) silver certificates as fives in Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia than any other expert in the business, was brought before the United States court here. Finding defense useless Seibert made a confession. He told how he had skinned genuine $5 certificates of part of their figures and pasted them on

A pile of the raised notes on the table showed that the work had been so neatly and deftly done that it was only by close scanning that the fraud could be detected. Choked to Death by Beans. MONTICELLO, Ills., July S. — Miss Mary McMurry, living near White Heath, this county, swallowed some beans, which lodged in her throat and choked her to death almost instantly.

SOUGHT TO SAVE A LIFE. But John Moody Could Not Swim

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 8.—John Moody (colored) was drowned in the Susquehanna while trying to save a child from drowning. Moody had put two little children who were in his charge into a boat and was pushing the boat around to amuse the little ones when one of them fell overboard.

Moody immped in, but being a poor swimmer was caught by an eddy and carried down. His body was found standing upright in the water with outstretched arm. The child was saved by one of a number of men who saw the accident.

Found His Body in the Rye.

Kingston, N. Y., July 8.—The body of Ebenezer Alsdorf, aged 50 years, was found in a rye field at Snawaugunk. He had been eat of his min 1 for some time, and commuted suicide by cutting his dround with a razor. He leaves a wife and family.

The Green Eyed Monster's Work.

Altro-NA, Pa., July 8.—Clara Jones, aged 19, a servant in the Central hotel at Gallitzin, had her thoat cut with a razor by Harry Marsh, aged 29, a miner, who was furious with jealousy. The girl will die.

HARRISON'S HOUSE.

Why the President's Wife Accepted the Cape May Cottage.

THE NOTORIETY OF BABY M'KEE

Ocean Grove's Camp Meeting in Full Blast-Preparations for the State Encampment at Sea Girt. An Innovation at Asbury Park. Drowned at Atlantic City.

CAPE MAY, July 8 .- Mrs. Harrison has at last been induced to talk with a reporter concerning the circumstances which induced the acceptance of the comfortable cottage at Cape May Point where the executive's family are now enjoying the sea breezes.

Mrs. Harrison said that the White Mrs. Harrison said that the White House is too small to accommodate their large family, and during the summer, on account of the conventional restraint put upon the president's family, it is especially uncomfortable. There have been suggestions from various sources about the president purchasing a summer home in suburbs of Washington, which at the end of his official term might be sold at a considerable advance. We have had an example of this, but the president will not use his official rank as a means of making money, even to the extent of purchasing a home for his summer use and selling it when he retires from the office.

An Opportune Offer.

ing it when he retires from the office.

An Opportune Offer.

"It happened while we were considering what plans it would be best to make, that I was surprised by the gift of this beautiful cottage, fully equipped and ready for our occupation. Its acceptance seemed to me to be the best which could be done. None of the gentlemen concerned could have any object other than the courtesy of making us comfortable. As far as their names are known, none of them seek office, it does not involve the president in any money making for his personal benefit. How others may be benefited does not concern us. If our presence at Cape May Point will be a benefit to any persons they are welcome to it.

Baby McKec's Notoricty.

Baby McKee's Notoricty.

As to Baby McKee, Mrs. Harrison said, "We have never wished the publicity given our grandchildren: therefore, if any one is getting dissatisfied, it should be remembered that we did not obtrude them upon the public. We have sought in every way to preserve the privacy of one home, but we have not been permitted to enjoy that happiness. When it is said by inconsiderate persons that we force our privacy upon the public it can be truthfully said, but without desiring to be offensive, that the public have forced themselves upon us. I am sorry for such persons who take pleasure in making me unhappy." Baby McKee's Notoriety.

WCRK FOR CONGRESS

The Tariff and Subsidy Bills Occupy

the Senate, Washington, July 8. — The pro gramme in the senate this week inludes the passage of the postal subsidy bills and possibly the river and harbor bill and the opening of the debate on the tariff question. Senator Morrill, the chairman of the committee or finance, has said he will call up the an element in Governor Hill. He liked and admired him, and so did L."

The conversation then drifted into the undefined and desultory, and the correspondent, while not quoting Mrs. Hendricks closely, gathered the following points:

Luwritten History.

When Mr. Hendricks went to the Chicago convention he told his wife that he was determined not to accept the monimation for the vice presidency; but it was afterwards forced upon him. He was given to understand that he could have anything for his friends that he wanted.

After the victory and before the inauguration, he again had the same assurances made to him concerning the disposal of certain portions of the official patronage. What was the result: The air of Washington never became free of a certain Republican, or at least Mugwump taint during the entire four years. Mr. Hendricks was lumiliated in various ways. It was only after the most vexatious and embarrassing experience that he occasionally secured a trifling position for somebody.

This consideration and embarrassing experience that he occasionally secured a trifling position for somebody.

This constant treatment throughout the spring and summer, with all the humiliation and embarrassine accruing, had a debilitating effect upon Mr. Hendricks, His health had not been good for two years or more. The presidential canvass had brought exposure and an overtasking of his powers, and he should have had perfect rest and quiet. In November the end came, and the vice president died.

A Most Remarkable Hen.

Sénding the matter of the manding when it has been made the unfinished business of the senate, to have it laid aside informally that the unstable business of the senate, the have a week may be dissipated at length under the subsidy bills have the less dispersive two with the subsidy bills have the less dispersive business of the senate, the last will be said daily be selected in favor of the Republican contestants, and they will be assert the last possion for two daily two of the consideration. county by the White Caps, abused his wife in a shocking manner on July 1.
The next day she was found shot,

Picnickers Killed. Picnickers Killed.

PORT HURON, Mich., July 8.—Henry Henderson borrowest his employer's team to take his family to a picnic. The team took fright and ran away throwing the occupants out of the vehicle, injuring Mr. Henderson seriously. Mrs. Henderson is so bally hurt that she will die. A daughter and son were instantly killed, and another son had his left hand torn off.

ALTAMONT, Ills., July 2.—At Iola, Ills., a small station on the Ohio and Mississippi railroad about eighteen miles south of here, the drug store of J. Patricks was discovered to be on fire, but was under such headway that nothing could be done. The flumes swept the entire business portion of the town, leaving but one store standing.

CRUELTY IN BURMAH

Oppression by the British Police in That Country.

CANNIBALISM IN THE SOUDAN.

The Famishing Natives Forced to Dine Off Each Other-A Tale of Horror from Cairo-Count Kalnoky's Coudition Inspires Alarm. Programme of the Parnellites.

LONDON, July 8 .- Further advice from Burmah give painful accounts of the cruelties perpetrated by the British police on the wretched inhabitants. Although torture is expressly prohibited by law throughout the British empire. Burmah appears to be an exception, it being the policy of the police in certain districts to extract confessions from accused persons by methods amounting to cused persons by methods amounting to torture.

In the Kiyanksai district of upper Burmah a magistrate, at the request of a district superintendent of police, refused to grant bail to persons accused of a bailable offense. One the accused was put in a solitary cell and handcuffed for three days and two nigats until he made a confession implicating himself and another. On being released he immediately withdrew the confession, claiming that it had been extorted from him by physical suffering.

It proved that there was no evidence whatever to sustain the charges. It is proposed to establish a judicial commissioner for the conquered province in sioner for the conquered province in order to put an end to the outrages per-petrated by the practically irresponsible officials.

The Familiae in the Scudan.

CAIRO, July 8.—Advices have reached here that the familiae which has for some time past prevailed in the Soudan, is increasing rapidly. Thousands of natives are without food of any kind and the reported number of deaths from starvation is appalling. With the reports of this dreadful state of affairs come horrible stories of cannibalism which is also said to be on the increase. It was reported not long ago that the which is also said to be on the increase. It was reported not long ago that the dead were being eaten by the famished survivors, but the present advices represent matters as still worse. It is now asserted that large numbers of men, women and children are deliberately put to death that they may serve as food for their frenziel companions. Relief has been extended to these unhappy people, as far as possible, but not samcently to allay the terrible suffering in the interior settlements which are beyond reach, rior settlements which are beyond reach,

Americans Capture Berlin.

Americans Capture Berlin.

Berlin, July 8.—The German federal rifle meeting opened yesterday. The programme opened with a grand procession to the town ball, starding from the Bandenburg gate. The line was arranged in order of nationality, the Americans taking precedence of the other foreigners. A siriking feature of the pageant was groups of rifl men representing the development or advancement of Germany's shooting associations since the thirteenth century. The streets comprising the line of march were crowded with people, who cheered themselves house in honor of the vitors, and in admiration of the display. Herr Von Forckenbeck, mayor of Berlin, welcomed the visitors at the town hall. A number of members of the New York independents in carriages, two abreast, headed the Americans in the procession.

Parnellites on the Warpath.

London, July 8,—The Parnellite members are fully prepared to make life miserable for Mr. Balfour during the coming week, in the discussion of the Irish estimates. It is proposed to attack the whole police system of Irisland, and to this end the Nationalists have for some time past been collecting evidence of intimidation on the part of the Irish constabulary, which they hope will break the chief secretary's contention that the police have shown remarkable elemency toward offenders. Nearly every Irish member of parliamentary prominence has prepared a speech on the subject, and a lively time is expected. Parnellites on the Warpath.

Killed at a Grade Crossing. Berlis, July 8.—An express train running at a high rate of speed, struck a carriage which was crossing the track near Lippe. Germany, killing three of its occupants and seriously injuring two others. The three killed were women.

The Fireworks Went Off. LONDON, July 8.—An explosion oc-curred in a fireworks factory at Croy-don, completely wrecking the building and several adjoining ones. Fortu-nately no lives were lost. The pecuni-ary damage is heavy.
